James Rebert Wiley, born November 1877, die June 16th 1678, aged 6 months and 24 days. Farewell dear little Robby, Here thy loss we desply feel; But 'tis God who hath bereft He can all our sorrows heal.

He can all our sorrows heal.

Departed this life, very suddenly, near Mi. Clifton, in this cousty, on the evening of the 18th last, Capt. John Peters, aged 67 years, 9 months, and 24 days.
The deceased ate his supper, as usual, perhaps, two lears before his death, after which he went to the woods and carried home some place for kinding, then went to the granary for corn fer his hogs, and remaining longer than usual, some member of his family went to lock for him. When he was found, a few yards from the granary, dead, ne having procured the corn and locked the deer. He had been dead but a few minutes when discovered. On the 20th his remains were conveyed on the granary acquaints ances and relatives. He was a bighly respected clizen; and his widow and seven or eight chieferen have the sympathy of all who are acquainted with them. or eight chilaren have he spansary or eight chilaren have he capanited with them.

But better than all size, they are comforted in the assurance that the summous to meet his God sudden as it was, did not find him unprepared to to the 'manison prepared," for the disciple to the 'manison prepared, or the disciple to the Lord Jesus. He was, for many years a processor of the religion of the Gospel. P. M.
